Richmond Sports Committee - Help Needed

I am looking for someone to take my place as the recreational soccer referee coordinator.

My job is to schedule the referees for spring and fall soccer. This is only for recreational soccer not competitive.

If you are interested, please contact me (Holly Seamons). My phone number is (435) 890-3223.

Richmond Baseball registration is open for the month of March!

Registration forms are available at the Richmond City Office (90 S 100 W) or on the city website at Youth Sports. Online registration is also available.

Payment may be made at the Richmond City Office, by mail (Richmond City, PO Box 9, Richmond, UT 84333), or a check placed in the drop box outside of the city office.

We would like to bring back slow-pitch softball for 9 -12-year-old girls if there is enough interest. Spread the word!

Volunteers Needed

Richmond City is looking for volunteers to keep the baseball program running. If you are interested in helping, please contact the sports committee at richmondutsports@gmail.com or (435) 932-0257.

The Richmond Library

A citizen's door to lifelong learning

What's New...

Playaway Launchpads are the first-ever secure, pre-loaded learning tablet created just for children in a circulation environment. Each Launchpad is pre-loaded with high-quality, ad-free learning apps grouped by age, grade level, subject area, and theme. Thanks to a grant from the State Library, we now have 20 new Playaway Launchpads available for checkout.

Interlibrary Loans

With a grant provided by the State Library, you are now able to request an interlibrary loan for a book, audio book or DVD without a $2.00 charge. Simply email, call, or come into the library to request the title. We will call you when it comes in.
